

ANNOUNCEMENT
VACANCY ON THE MEDICAID TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY (TBI)
QUALITY IMPROVEMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Medicaid TBI Waiver Program is seeking application to fill the following vacancies on its Quality Improvement Advisory (QIA) Council.

To be eligible, applicants must fall into one of the following categories:

- Current or former program Participants/Legal Representative/Family Member
- Stakeholder (family, advocate of persons with TBI)
- TBI Waiver Provider

What is the QIA Council? The purpose of the Medicaid TBI Waiver Quality Improvement Advisory (QIA) Council is to provide guidance and feedback to the Department of Human Services, Bureau for Medical Services (BMS) in the development of an ongoing quality assurance and improvement system for the TBI Waiver Program.

What is the role of the Council? The role of the QIA Council is advisory in nature and therefore, it has no authority in administering the Medicaid TBI Waiver Program. Its function is to advise and assist WV BMS in program planning, development, and evaluation consistent with its stated purpose. In this role, the Quality Improvement Advisory Council shall:

1. Review findings from discovery activities.
2. Recommend program priorities and quality initiatives.
3. Recommend policy changes.
4. Monitor and evaluate the implementation of Waiver priorities and quality initiatives.
5. Monitor and evaluate policy changes.
6. Serve as a liaison between Waiver and its stakeholders.
7. Establish committees and work groups consistent with their purpose and guidelines.

How often and where does the Council meet? The QIA Council meets four times per year (3rd Thursday) in August, November, February, and May using a virtual meeting platform.

If I send in a Membership Application, what happens next? The Membership Committee will review all applications and choose those that best represent the needs of the council (ex. Type of council member, location in the state, level of experience with the Medicaid TBI Waiver Program). If the Membership Committee would like to nominate you as a potential member, you will be contacted by phone or email to confirm your continued availability and interest in serving on the Council. The QIA Council will vote to select new members from the pool of nominees. If you are nominated for voting, you will be notified of the results.
